SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 1913.

Subject: "The Ten Commandments—II." Ex. xx:12-21.

Golden Text: "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind, and thy neighbor as thyself." Luke x:27.

1. Verse 12—What is implied in the commandment to honor our father and mother?

2. The parents take the place of God, for the time being, to the children; show, therefore, the need and the profit of obedience.

3. If children are taught to obey and reverence their parents, what will be the almost certain after-career of such children?

4. If children are not taught obedience to parents, what may be expected of them when they are men and women?

5. What part does obedience to law, to properly constituted authority, have upon health, long life and prosperity?

6. Verse 13—What are the limitations, if any, of the commandment, "Thou shalt not kill"?

7. Under present day civil law, what constitutes murder?

8. What constitutes murder according to Christ?

9. Why is the man who would commit murder, but for the consequences to himself, as guilty of murder before God as if he had committed the act?

10. Verse 14—Are persons who marry for money, for social position, or to spite some person, or for animosity, or any other reason than pure love, considered by God as living in continuous adultery, and especially if they do not change for the better after marriage? Give your reasons.

11. Are married persons who quarrel and really hate each other, yet cohabit, guilty of adultery before God? Why, or why not?

12. Why is adultery sandwiched in the commandments between murder and theft?

13. Verse 15. What is the moral culpability or guilt of stealing?

MARRIED 8 TIMES IN A WEEK.

George Witzoff Held Record—More than One Hundred Wives.

(Chicago Tribune.)

Women, as a rule, are more given to the marrying habit than men, though no woman has reached the world's marrying record made by George Witzoff, the notorious bigamist, whose marriages totalled over one hundred. In one week he went through eight ceremonies.

Almost as strange a case was that of a Russian woman sent not long ago to Siberia. She had been married to twenty husbands and had treated them all alike, running away from each in turn and taking all their portable property with her. She was a most attractive woman and highly educated.

A woman named Schmeier, of Pennsylvania, was sent to prison not long ago for bigamy. Though she was only 27 years old, she had married twelve men in ten years. Her only comment in court was that she liked them all.

A Boer woman named De Beers, whose sixth husband died recently, is the proud mother and stepmother of 49 children, while her grandchildren number 270. Four of her six husbands were widowers, all with fairly large families when she married them.

GIRLS! GIRLS! TRY IT.
BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR.

Make it thick, glossy, wavy, luxuriant and remove dandruff—Real surprise for you.

Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a "Dandeline hair cleanse." Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Dandeline and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt and excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair.

Besides beautifying the hair at once, Dandeline dissolves every particle of dandruff, cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

But what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair and lots of it surely get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Dandeline from any druggist or toilet counter, and just try it.

14. How would you answer the sophistry of the kind-hearted burglar of rich men, who gives to the poor his stealings, and claims that it is no sin to take from a rich man the wealth that he can never use?

15. Verse 16—Give some illustrations of what you would consider bearing false witness against your neighbor to be?

16. Would you consider, or not, and why, that spreading an evil report against a neighbor, whether true or not, without some good reason for doing so, should be considered as breaking the spirit of the eighth commandment? (This is one answered in writing by members of the club.)

17. What are some of the harmful effects of telling evil things about our neighbors?

18. Verse 17—How would you define the sin of covetousness?

19. Why is covetousness such a great sin?

20. What are some of the natural effects of coveting upon the person who covets?

21. Why would you say, or not, that no person can be a reconciled child of God who plans or expects to break any one of the Ten Commandments?

STORM SWEPT ATLANTIC COAST.

Eight Men of the Battleship Nebraska Are Reported Drowned.

Newport News, Va. Sept. 3.—Three petty officers and five men of the battleship Nebraska were drowned to-day when one of the ship's launches was wrecked in the hurricane sweeping the coast here. The Nebraska is at anchor off Fort Monroe, but the storm has put the shore wireless out of commission. Communication by small boats is impossible.

The men were attempting to make shore. Persons on the wharves say a waterspout struck the launch, overturned it and men and boat disappeared.

The hurricane, blowing since early morning, is accompanied by an almost blinding downpour of rain, but the battleship seems to be riding it out well.

48-Mile Gale.

A severe northeast storm swept the Virginia, North Carolina and Maryland coasts to-day, with the wind reaching a maximum velocity at Cape Henry early this morning of 48 miles an hour from the east.

The four-masted coasting schooner Richard F. C. Hartley, from New York to Charleston, S. C., with salt, which went ashore yesterday between Bodies Island and Cape Hatteras, with the loss of two members of her crew, broke up in the high seas of to-day and much of the wreckage came ashore along the coast.

Capt. Sprague, (Stockton Springs, Maine,) and the four surviving members of the Hartley's crew were to-day being cared for by the life savers of the Chicamiconce life saving station, who effected their rescue. The schooner Hartley was 25 years old, having been built at Bath, Maine, in 1888. She carried a crew of seven men.

The storm raged with great severity on this coast to-day and many sailing vessels sought shelter in Hampton Roads. The vessels of the Atlantic battle fleet now in Hampton Roads rode the storm in perfect safety, but the blow even in Hampton Roads was the worst of the present season. All incoming Washington and Baltimore Bay boats had rough experiences during the night and other bay boats found it very severe to-day.

GHOST LAID LOW BY RECTOR.

Spook that Tore Bedclothes Off Sleeping Visitors.

London, Sept. 5.—The story of an obstreperous ghost that played pranks upon the residents at Asfordby Rectory, Leicestershire, for over 30 years, has at last been laid low by the rector, Rev. F. A. Gage Hall, who comes from Leicester.

Mr. Hall, after many fruitless attempts to rid the rectory of its uninvited, long-staying and non-paying guest, at last resorted to the expedient of a solemn exorcism. Putting on cassock and surplice he went to the affected parts of the house, and with stern mein commanded the spirit to depart "in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost."

"I believe," said the rector in an interview, "that my action has been successful, for we have since seen or heard nothing of the ghost."

The rectory is a very old and rambling building. It has been the residence of many well known people, and it is alleged to have been the scene of many grim and daring deeds. Hence it possesses ideal and unrivalled attractions for any enterprising and house hunting spook. But the particular ghost upon whose eviction the rector of Asfordby is being widely congratulated was not merely a creature of moans and groans and creepy manners and appearance. He was a ghost of vigorous physique, and moreover an apparition with strongly developed likes and dislikes. His pet aversion, seemingly, was bedclothes, and to show his displeasure he was in the habit of ripping the blankets and other clothing from harmless sleepers in the dead of night.

Rev. C. H. Strudwick, vicar of Whetstone, a neighboring Leicestershire parish, recently slept for several nights in a haunted room, and he relates that on the very first night he was alarmed by a violent tugging at his bedclothes. He held on as tightly as he was able, but in vain. The ghost won the tug-of-war and stripped the vicar of his covering.

"All I could see," said the vicar afterward, "was a heap of disordered bedclothes on the floor. There was nothing else to indicate that anything unusual had occurred. I searched the room thoroughly and everything was in order. The door was locked on the inside and no one could have entered. But when the same thing happened the very next night I was glad to change my room."

A sister-in-law of the rector subsequently slept in the same room and had the same alarming experience. Rev. Gage Hall declares that such occurrences have been troubling the household ever since he can remember. "The family," he said, "have heard the ghost tramping round the corridors of the house at night, and the servants have been scared by strange happenings and noises."

Since the exorcism, however, the ghost has ceased his pranks, and it is generally hoped that he has gone away for good. There are some who may suggest that the spook has merely gone away on his summer vacation. But the inhabitants of the rectory do not treat the matter in a frivolous spirit.

German Kills His Family.

Huelhausen, Germany, Sept. 5.—A crazed teacher named Wagner murdered his wife and four children yesterday, and then set fire to the village. He barricaded himself in his house and had a pitched battle with villagers who attempted to capture him. Wagner killed eight persons and wounded ten before he was captured.

Misplaced confidence isn't always the result of being absent-minded.

MOTHER! GIVE CROSS, SICK CHILD ONLY "CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS."

If peevish, feverish, tongue coated, give "Fruit laxative" at once.

No matter what ails your child a laxative should be the first treatment given.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign your "little one's" stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When cross, peevish, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally; if breath is bad, stomach sour, system full of cold, throat sore, or if feverish, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in just a few hours all the clogged-up, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food will gently move out of the bowels and you have a well, playful child again.

Sick children needn't be coaxed to take this harmless fruit laxative. Millions of mothers keep it handy because they know its action on the stomach, liver and bowels is prompt and sure. They also know a little given to-day saves a sick child to-morrow. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

HOT SPRINGS FLAME-SWEPT.

Heart of City in Ashes—Buildings Being Dynamited.

Hot Springs, Ark., Sept. 5.—Fire, fanned by a high wind, has swept twelve blocks in this city. The city fire department is dynamiting buildings in the path of the blaze, and has called on Little Rock for aid. The city water supply plant has been destroyed.

At 6 o'clock the entire business section of Malvern avenue had been destroyed, and the flames were spreading rapidly. The Park and Jefferson hotels are burning.

The buildings already destroyed include the plant of Swift & Co., the Ozark Sanitarium and the high school building. So far no loss of life has been reported.

Other buildings burned include the city's gas and light plant, the Iron Mountain railroad station, the county court house and the Moody Hotel.

The fire originated in a negro dwelling, just east of the government reservation, and, driven by a high wind, spread southward and away from the reservation.

At 8 o'clock to-night it is estimated that more than thirty square blocks of buildings have been destroyed and the fire shifting toward the main business section.

Sidney Dillon, superintendent of public utilities, estimated the loss at that hour at between $3,500,000 and $4,000,000.

A new German machine cleans and sorts medicinal tablets, rejecting broken ones, and packs them in boxes or tubes at a rate of from 150,000 to 200,000 a day.

FOR EDUCATION OF GIRLS.

Miss Hawthorne Leaves Money to Officials of Baptist Church.

(Greenville News, 4th.)

Miss Lillie Hawthorne, who died at her home on Hampton avenue Monday night, designated a considerable portion of her property to be used in the education of poor girls. Miss Hawthorne in her will made bequests to a number of her relatives, and then named the pastor, clerk and deacons of the First Baptist church as trustees of the remainder of her property, this property to be used in the education of poor girls. The property left for such purpose includes her late home on the corner of Hampton avenue and Hudson street, and some four or five thousand dollars in investments. The house and lot is a valuable piece of property, its worth running well into the thousands. The trustees of the estate will be custodians of the revenue derived from this property and from other property also, using it as designated in her will.

Miss Hawthorne had for many years been a devoted member of the First Baptist church, and had long been interested in education.

Diarrhoea Quickly Cured.

"I was taken with diarrhoea, and Mr. Yorks, the merchant here, persuaded me to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. After taking one dose of it I was cured. It also cured others that I gave it to," writes M. E. Gebhart, Oriole, Pa. That is not at all unusual. An ordinary attack of diarrhoea can almost invariably be cured by one or two doses of this remedy. For sale by all dealers. ad.

Blood Was Wrong

All women, who suffer from the aches and pains, due to female ailments, are urged to try Cardui, the reliable, scientific, tonic remedy, for women. Cardui acts promptly, yet gently, and without bad effects, on the womanly system, relieving pain, building up strength, regulating the system, and toning up the nerves. During the past half century, thousands of ladies have written to tell of the quick curative results they obtained, from the use of this well-known medicine.

CARDUI
The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Jane Calahan suffered from womanly trouble for nearly ten years. In a letter from Whiteville, N. C., she says: "I was not able to do my own housework. My stomach was weak, and my blood was wrong. I had back-ache, and was very weak. I tried several doctors, but they did me no good. I used Cardui for 3 or 4 months, and now I am in the best health I have ever been. I can never praise Cardui enough." It is the best tonic, for women.

Whether seriously sick, or simply weak, try Cardui.
